Hi Charles and/or Elisabeth,

Please provide any input to the email below.

Stacey tested the scale, which was a residue and I confirmed it for cocaine. I can review Stacey's notes and provide testimony based on the lab policies and my findings.

Hope this helps.

Annie

Hey Annie,

How are you? I wanted to let you know that the [REDACTED] trial is coming up on December 6 and I expect that the case will go on that date. I have tried to work out a disposition with the defense attorney but at this point the Defendant does not want to plea Guilty. So my question is what can we do about the issue with Stacy Feiden having left the lab? How have you been handling these issues? I bring this up because the drugs in my case were found in a hide, in a car that does not belong to the defendant. The scale (which is not in the hide) the defendant allegedly says is his. If the evidence regarding the scale is excluded the case will be significantly more difficult. Any help you can provide would be greatly appreciated.

Mike
